ENplus® Certification Bodies Application

VERSION JUNE 2023

Application to become a listed Certification Body within the ENplus® certification scheme

In accordance with the ENplus® ST 1002 and ENplus® PD 2004, only Certification Bodies that are listed with the ENplus® International Management are accepted for certification within the ENplus® system. Certification Bodies must be accredited according to ISO/IEC 17065 with a member of the European Cooperation for accreditation or the International Accreditation Forum (IAF). The scope of the application must include the ENplus® standards.

International organisations with locations in different countries must list every location separately in order to guarantee the right expertise in every location. Please fill in the location data sheet for each location.

In order to get listed, please complete this form and send an electronic version to enplus@bioenergyeurope.org
