February 2021

Read about our Interview with Michal Manhalter from SZU (Engineering Test Institute) where he shares his thoughts on ENplus® and the Czech pellet market.

We have made various changes to the ENplus® website to improve user experience. The lists for national partners and conformity assessment bodies are easier to find and now you can also search certified companies by address!

NBE understands the value of ENplus® high quality pellets, so we recommend them for pellet appliances. You can find the full list of recommendations here!
