Interview

Few people have been involved in ENplus® from its early days until now. Martin Englisch from BEA Institut für Bioenergie GmbH is one of them and in this interview he shares some memories and important insights.

Scam case

The Spanish Guardia Civil dismantled a scam network that imitated a certified company, misleading over 150 people into believing that they were purchasing pellets from a real company. Find out more here.

Progetto Fuoco and European Pellet Forum 2026

The banner features the logos of AIEL (Associazione Italiana Energie Agroforeste), European Pellet Council, and Bioenergy Europe. It shows a hand holding a pile of wood pellets. The text "EUROPEAN PELLET FORUM" is prominently displayed, with "2026" in the Bioenergy Europe logo. A large orange circle on the right says "SAVE THE DATE". Below the date, "Verona" is written in green, followed by "27th Feb. 2026" and "9:00 am - 1:00 pm". The bottom left corner of the banner says "PART OF PROGETTO FUOCO".

ENplus® will be present at Progetto Fuoco and will give away branded gifts to the visitors as part of the scheme's 15th anniversary. This year, the European Pellet Forum 2026 will be part of the international trade fair and will take place on 27 February 2026. Learn more about it here.

Update

The profiles of the certified companies on the ENplus® website as well as in the mobile application now includes also information about the Certification Body.

E-learning

The e-learning training course is an alternative to the training events organised by the scheme management every year, and is open to the quality managers of certified companies that are located in countries for which no on-site training events are planned. Learn more about it here.

Do you know?

A standard 15 kg bag of wood pellets contains more than 70 kWh of usable energy, equivalent to 7 l of oil or 7 m<sup>3</sup> of gas. Check out this short video for more facts about the power of pellets!
